

The Nineteenth Oxford Britannia Naval Research Association Symposium
Saturday 13th May 2023 St Anne's College, Oxford.

'SEA TO OCEAN'

An historical glance at naval activity through the Middle Sea and into the Indian Ocean.

Registration with coffee/tea from 09.15 Morning session:10.00

James Walters: 'The Pivotal Role of Malta in Naval Operations in WW2'

Dr Paul Brown: 'The Mystery of HM Submarine Urge'

Sim Comfort: 'Witness to the Battle of the Nile 1798: Capt. Ralph Willett Miller, HMS Theseus'

Dr Vaughan Michell: 'Commander Hogarth RNVR, TE Lawrence's Mentor'

Lunch: 13.00

Afternoon session: 14.00

Kit Villiers: Introduction to the Alan Villiers Lecture Series and Guest Speaker

John Johnson-Allen 'Admiral RE Wemyss and TE Lawrence: The Naval Connections'

David Willey, Curator Bovington Tank Museum: 'TE Lawrence and his love of Rolls Royces'

Rob White & Martin Muncaster screen their film, 'Duty Before Honour : Mers el Kebir 1940'

Rear Admiral, Dr. Chris Parry: 'East of Suez: The Royal Navy in WW2 and in the Future'

Close: 17.30

Original Artwork by
Geoffrey Huband ©

Displays of naval items, prints, models and maritime history
Plus, a sale of second hand naval and maritime books

Day conference £59.00 to inc. coffee, lunch, wine and tea. Half day, without lunch: £20 to inc. coffee/tea

To book: phone 07790 928825 or email: secretary@britannia-naval-research-association.com www.britannia-naval-research-association.com

